

Community Group Discussion Guide Fall 2018 Say Yes Week 3

Notes:

Connection Question:

- How have you liked this series?
- Where do you see our church investing in the next generation?
- How have you said yes in the past?
- Who has invested in you? What did they do that was so significant?
- What do you have to invest in the next generation? Zack said that every person has gifts, talents, passions, experiences, resources, and knowledge.
- What are the "earthly treasures" you most often find yourself pursuing? Money? Possessions? Achievements?
- Zack talked about the joy of the mundane , and how spending time with young kids can help us to experience it. What did he mean by that? Have you ever experienced that?

Connection Questions Continued:

Notes:

- Zack also talked about the benefits of being challenged in our faith, values, and thoughts. Do you see how working with teenagers could lead to that? Do you agree that's important?
- Do you ever find yourself worrying about the next generation and the decisions that they will make?

Prayer:

Pray for each other
